Tailor made international
wealth management –
because it's for generations

Protection, management and transmission of assets

Protecting, structuring and growing your assets are the main motives for turning to international wealth management.

In Luxembourg, these motives are echoed by reassuring circumstances: the country's stability constitutes the foundation of your protection, its expertise is synonymous with effectiveness, and its international ties are your passport for outstanding service and opportunities.

Whether you have built up your assets yourself over your lifetime, or whether your assets have been transmitted within your family for several generations, it is vital that you know that they are in a safe place, and that you be in a position to make informed choices to perpetuate their value, in order to be able to transmit them one day to your loved ones.

Your assets have an international dimension, and their management requires a similar approach. It is not enough to know and understand the legal and taxation environment of your country of residence and of Luxembourg; one must assess all the elements, worldwide, that might contribute to or interfere with your assets, and take care of how they might change over time.

To that end, a network of experts with extensive international experience is essential. Luxembourg is renowned worldwide for its experts. You will thus benefit not only from sophisticated products but also from an effective strategy that puts all these products at the service of your wealth.

To entrust the management of your assets
to financial experts based in Luxembourg means far more than you might think.
It is a sign of your deep-seated concern
for the generations that will follow
and that will continue to bear your name proudly for years to come.
